REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-68 are allowed.
2. The Terminal Disclaimer filed on August 14, 2006 has been recorded and obviates the Double Patenting Rejection issued on July 27, 2006.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
4. The above mentioned claims are allowable over the Cited Prior Art (CPA) fails to teach or render obvious the claimed limitations in combination with the specific added limitations, as recited in independent claims 1,25,37,42,54, and 61, and subsequent dependent claims.

The CPA does not teach or suggest a method or system for managing resources comprising the client obtaining a credential to allow the client to access a resource provided by a service, the client sending a service request message in a data representation language referencing said resource, wherein the service request message includes a credential and a first requested lease period, wherein the service determines if the credential is authentic, and if it is grants access to the client of the first specified lease period.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
